New Lower Kids' Prices at Rave Motion Pictures!

Certified Family Fun All Summer

DAYTON, OH (June 23, 2011) - Starting Friday, June 24, Rave Motion Pictures Huber Heights 16 and Dayton South 16 theaters will offer regular children's admission tickets for $7 and $10 for 3D movies. The new reduced pricing comes into effect just in time for a summer packed with big-budget blockbuster franchises, including Disney's highly-anticipated Cars 2, Paramount's Transformers 3 and Warner Bros.' final Harry Potter installment in mid-July. All three movies will be offered in 2D and 3D formats nationwide and are perfect for the whole family to enjoy.

Rave Huber Heights and Rave Dayton South are both home to arcades, birthday party rooms, daily matinees and family activities, as well as the Free Family Film Festival. These offerings are some of the area's most family-friendly entertainment options. The reduced kid's ticket prices will make the theater experience a viable option for more families in the area.

The theaters are attractive to parents, as well. Each theater has 16 auditoriums with a variety of films to choose from. All screens are equipped with state-of-the-art digital projection, providing the perfect picture every time. Conveniently located off 1-70 at 7737 Wayne Towne Blvd, Huber Heights continues to receive accolades for its top-notch customer service, while Dayton South, at 195 Mall Woods Drive, proves to be a top destination among locals, as well. As always, Rave theaters carry deluxe concession offerings and provide free refills on all large popcorn and soda purchases.

The ticket prices are good for a limited time at the Huber Heights and Dayton South locations only.

Dallas-based Rave Motion Pictures, the United States' fifth-largest theater exhibition chain, owns or manages 61 theaters and 921 screens located in 21 states across the country under the Rave Motion Pictures brand and has a presence in seven of the top ten Designated Market Areas.
