Toledo School for the Arts Receives Donation of Piano from Rave Motion Pictures

Rave Motion Pictures Helps Prepare Students in the Arts

Toledo, Ohio - Toledo School for the Arts (TSA) is excited to announce that the school is the recipient of a generous donation of a Pearl River Grand Piano from Rave Motion Pictures, owner of the Franklin Park 16 Theatres. In addition to the piano, Rave Motion Pictures has included a Piano Disc Digital Player System that will provide an endless stream of music.

The gift will be presented at the Franklin Park 16 Theaters at Westfield Franklin Park on Thursday, August 12th at 2 p.m. in the theater lobby, located above the Food Court and convenient to Level 2 of the parking garage.

Jeremy Devine, Vice President of Marketing will represent Rave Motion Pictures and representing TSA will be David Saygers, Artistic Director and TSA piano teacher Jamie Dael.

Said Jeremy Devine, Vice President of Marketing for Rave Motion Pictures "As Rave Theaters settles in to be a part of the greater Toledo community, we are delighted to donate this beautiful instrument to the renowned Toledo School for the Arts. We know they will put it to great use and literally create many beautiful experiences and great music with it."

"Grand pianos are one of the most difficult resources for a school to acquire, but they add a huge impact to the experience that young pianists have as musicians. They also add a lot to the quality of performances. Its a significant gift for TSA." comments Saygers.

The donation to TSA is part of the Dallas, Texas based Rave Motion Pictures commitment to community outreach, charitable affairs and to being a good neighbor.
